3. Supervising the Executive Management Board by the Board of Directors:

In the first 6 months of 2025, the Board of Directors (BOD) continued to effectively perform its supervisory function over the Company's Executive Management Board and the Hospital Executive Management. In addition to discussions and exchanges at official meetings of the Board of Directors or the Executive Management Board, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and members regularly exchanged via phone, email, online meetings or worked privately with each member of the Executive Management Board to seriously implement the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors. At the same time, supervision also helps the Board of Directors promptly grasp the effectiveness of production and business activities and the progress of implementing the Company's set goals.

The supervision of the Board of Directors is always carried out on the basis of ensuring the Company's operations are stable, favorable, and in compliance with the provisions of law, the Company's Charter and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

4. Activities of the Board of Directors' subcommittees (if any):

On July 8, 2025, the Board of Directors (BOD) of TNH Hospital Group Joint Stock Company issued a decision to establish specialized Committees under the Board of Directors, including: Audit Committee, Procurement and Bidding Committee, Risk Management Committee, Quality Committee, Human Resources and Remuneration Committee, Planning and Budget Committee.

Currently, due to their recent establishment, the Committees are in the process of developing, drafting and finalizing their operating regulations, assigning tasks, and establishing internal coordination procedures between the Committees and the Board of Directors, the Executive Management Board and specialized departments.

Although only in operation since July 2025, the Committees have initially implemented a number of key tasks as follows:

Organize internal meetings to determine the scope of work and assign responsibilities to each member;

Participate in giving comments on draft regulations and procedures related to internal audit, risk management, procurement - bidding, and quality control of medical services;

Coordinate with the Executive Management Board to review and preliminarily evaluate the 2025 plan targets to prepare for the 2026 plan.

Propose preliminary contents for senior human resource planning and review of salary and bonus policies in line with the Company's development orientation.

In addition, the Committees have also initially developed a roadmap for implementing activities in 2026, including: organizing regular meetings, establishing an independent reporting mechanism to the Board of Directors, evaluating the performance of each area of responsibility, thereby improving governance capacity and ensuring that the Company's operations comply with legal regulations, the Company's Charter, as well as public company governance practices.

- Supervise the preparation and recording of accounting books and documents of the Company, review financial indicators in published financial statements.

4. The coordination among the Board of Supervisors, the Executive Management Board, Board of Directors and other managers:

During the first 6 months of 2025, the Board of Supervisors maintained close coordination with the Board of Directors, the Executive Management Board and key managers of the Company to ensure that supervision activities were carried out effectively, objectively and transparently.

Specifically, the Board of Supervisors has proactively participated in all direct meetings of the Board of Directors to promptly grasp important policies and resolutions, and at the same time participated in discussions and debates on issues related to governance, operations and risk management. In addition, the Board of Supervisors regularly works with the Executive Management Board and specialized departments such as finance - accounting, human resources, internal administration to review, inspect and evaluate compliance with the Company Charter, Internal regulations on corporate governance as well as relevant legal regulations.

The coordination between the Board of Supervisors and other management levels is also demonstrated through two-way information exchange, coordination in reviewing issues arising in the process of production and business operations, thereby promptly proposing solutions to prevent risks and improve management efficiency. The Board of Supervisors also actively participates in contributing opinions on the development of management policies, human resources policies, salaries and important internal processes, thereby contributing to strengthening the foundation of transparent and sustainable corporate governance.

5. Other activities of the Board of Supervisors

In addition to regular monitoring tasks as prescribed by law, the Charter and Internal Regulations on corporate governance, in the first 6 months of 2025, the Board of Supervisors also carried out a number of other activities to improve monitoring effectiveness and contribute positively to the sustainable development of the Company, specifically:

Proactively research and update new legal regulations on public company governance, auditing standards, and financial reporting standards to apply to supervision work;

Participate in contributing ideas to draft important internal regulations and procedures of the Company, especially those related to financial activities, internal control, risk management and human resource management;

Coordinate the review and assessment of the internal control system, propose solutions to improve processes to increase operational efficiency and prevent operational risks;

Organize a number of separate working sessions with member units and key departments to grasp difficulties and obstacles in the process of performing tasks, thereby proposing timely solutions.

These activities have contributed to strengthening the role of the Board of Supervisors in ensuring that the Company operates transparently, effectively, legally and in accordance with good governance practices.
