p) Decision to invest or sell assets with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent Financial Statement;

q) Decision to repurchase more than 10% of total sold shares of each type;

r) The Company signs contracts and transactions with the entities specified in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises with a value equal to or greater than 35% of the total value of the Company's assets recorded in the most recent financial report;

s) Approve the transactions specified in Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities;

t) Approve the internal regulations on corporate governance and the Board of Directors' operating regulations;

u) Other matters as prescribed by law, or as requested by the Board of Directors.

3. All resolutions and issues included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted upon at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 16. Authorization to attend the Shareholders' Meeting

1. An individual shareholder or an organization shareholder may directly attend the meeting or authorize another person to attend the meeting. An organization shareholder owning at least 10% of the total number of common shares may authorize up to 03 authorized representatives to attend the meeting; or attend the meeting through one of the forms prescribed in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises.

2. In case a corporate shareholder appoints multiple authorized representatives, they must specify the number of shares allocated to each authorized representative. If the corporate shareholder does not specify the corresponding number of shares for each authorized representative, the shares shall be evenly distributed among all authorized representatives.

3. Authorization of individuals or organizations to attend the Shareholders' Meeting as stipulated in clause 1 of this Article must be in writing. The authorization document shall be drafted in accordance with civil law regulations, specifying the shareholder's name granting the authorization, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content and scope of the authorization, the duration of the authorization, and the signatures of both the granting party and the authorized party.

The authorized representative must submit the authorization document when registering to attend the meeting. In case of re-authorization, the attendee must additionally present the original authorization document from the shareholder or the authorized representative of the corporate shareholder (if not previously registered with the Company).

4. In case the corporate shareholder appoints an authorized representative, the document appointing the authorized representative must be notified to the company and only becomes effective for the company from the date the company receives the document. The document appointing the authorized representative must include the following essential contents:

- Name, business registration number, head office address of the shareholder;
- Number of authorized representatives and their share owing proportion, capital contribution of each authorized representative;
- Full name, contact address, nationality, identification document number of each individual authorized representative;
- Corresponding authorization period for each authorized representative, specifying the start date of representation;
- Full name, signature of the legal representative of the shareholder and the authorized representative.

5. The voting ballot of the authorized representative within the scope of authorization remains effective in the occurrence of one of the following cases, except:

- a) The authorized representative has deceased, become legally incapacitated or lost legal capacity;
- b) The authorized representative has revoked the appointment of authorization;
- c) The authorized representative has revoked the authority of the person executing the authorization.

This provision does not apply if the company receives notice of any of these events before the opening of the Shareholders' Meeting or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 17. Amendment of Rights

1. The change or cancellation of special rights attached to a type of preferred shares shall be effective when approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total number of votes of all shareholders attending the meeting. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the content of an adverse change in the rights and obligations of shareholders owning preferred shares shall only be approved if it is approved by the number of preferred shareholders of the same type attending the meeting owning 75% or more of the total number of preferred shares of that type or by the number of preferred shareholders of the same type owning 75% or more of the total number of preferred shares of that type in the case of a resolution being approved by writing opinion.

2. The organization of a meeting of shareholders holding a type of preferred shares to approve the above-mentioned change of rights is only valid when there are at least 02 shareholders (or their authorized representatives) and holding at least 1/3 of the par value of the issued shares of that type. In case there are not enough delegates as mentioned above, the meeting will be re-organized within the next 30 days and the shareholders of that type (regardless of the number of people and shares) present in person or through authorized representatives are considered to have sufficient number of delegates required. At the meetings of shareholders holding the above-mentioned preferred shares, the shareholders of that type present in person or through representatives may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same type has equal voting rights at the above-mentioned meetings.

3. The conditions, procedures, and forms for conducting meetings and voting and passing resolutions at such separate meetings are similar to those for the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in this Charter.

4. Unless otherwise provided in the terms of issue of shares, the special rights attached to the classes of shares with preferential rights in respect of some or all matters relating to the distribution of profits or assets of the Company shall not be changed when the Company issues additional shares of the same type.

Article 18. Convocation of Meetings, Agenda, and Notice of Shareholders' General Meeting

1. The Board of Directors convenes the annual and extraordinary Shareholders' General Meetings. The Board of Directors convenes an extraordinary Shareholders' General Meeting under the circumstances specified in Clause 3, Article 14 of this Charter.

2. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:

a) Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote at the Shareholders' General Meeting. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the Shareholders' General Meeting shall be prepared no later than 10 days before the date of sending the notice of the Shareholders' General Meeting. The company must announce information about the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the Shareholders' General Meeting at least 20 days before the final registration date;

b) Provide information and handle complaints related to the list of shareholders;

c) Prepare the agenda and contents of the general meeting;

d) Prepare documents for the meeting;

e) Draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the expected content of the meeting; list and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors;

f) Determine the time and venue of the general meeting;

g) Notify and send the notice of the Shareholders' General Meeting to all shareholders entitled to attend;

h) Provide the login name and corresponding access password for shareholders and their authorized representatives (if any) to access the online Shareholders' General Meeting system, participate, and exercise voting rights, including electronic voting, in case the company organizes an online Shareholders' General Meeting;

i) Perform other tasks serving the general meeting.

3. The notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by a method that ensures that it reaches the shareholders' contact addresses and shall be published on the Company's website and the State Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall send the notice of invitation to all shareholders on the List of Shareholders entitled to attend the meeting at least 21 days before the opening date of the meeting (calculated from the date on which the notice is validly sent or transmitted). The notice of meeting must include the name, head office address, enterprise code; name, contact address of shareholders, time, location of meeting and other requirements for meeting attendees. The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, documents related to issues to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. In case the documents are not sent with the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the notice of meeting must clearly state the link to all meeting documents for shareholders to access, including:

a) Meeting agenda and documents used in the meeting;

b) List and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors;

c) Voting ballot;

d) Draft resolutions for each issue in the meeting agenda.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 05% or more of the total number of common shares have the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and must be sent to the Company at least 03 working days before the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of each type of shares of the shareholder, and the issues proposed to be included in the agenda.

5. In case the person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders refuses the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article, he/she must respond in writing and state the reasons no later than two (02) working days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may only refuse the proposal if it falls under one of the following cases:

- a) The petition is sent in violation of the provisions in Clause 4 of this Article;
- b) At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold 5% or more of common shares;
- c) The proposed issue is not within the scope of decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- d) Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except for the case specified in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for holding a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders is held when the number of shareholders attending the meeting represents more than 50% of the total number of votes.

2. In case the first meeting does not meet the conditions for holding it as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, the notice of invitation to the second meeting shall be sent within 30 days from the date of the first meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held when the number of shareholders attending the meeting represents 33% or more of the total number of votes.

3. In case the second meeting does not meet the conditions for holding the meeting as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice of invitation to the third meeting must be sent within 20 days from the date of the planned second meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held regardless of the total number of votes of the shareholders attending the meeting.

4. Only the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to decide to change the meeting agenda sent with the meeting invitation as prescribed in Article 142 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before opening the meeting, the Company must carry out shareholder registration procedures and must carry out the registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting are present and registered in the following order:

a) When registering shareholders, the Company shall issue to each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights a voting card and/or voting ballot, election ballot (if any), on which is stated the registration number, full name of the shareholder or full name of the authorized representative and the number of votes/elections of that shareholder or authorized representative.

b) In case the Company organizes an online General Meeting of Shareholders and electronic voting, shareholders and authorized representatives (if any) access the online General Meeting of Shareholders and electronic voting system, attend and exercise voting and election rights.

c) Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders or authorized persons attending the meeting after the meeting has opened may still register and have the right to vote immediately after registration. The chairman is not responsible for stopping the meeting to allow late shareholders to register and the validity of previously voted contents shall not change.

2. Election of Chairman, Secretary, and Vote Counting Committee is regulated as follows:

a) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall chair or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to chair the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In case the Chairman is absent or temporarily unable to work, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to chair the meeting according to the majority principle. In case no one can be elected as chair, the Chairman of the Audit Committee shall conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairman of the meeting and the person with the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;

b) Except for the case specified in Point a of this Clause, the person who signs the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall direct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect the meeting chairman and the person with the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;

c) The chairman appoints one or more people to act as meeting secretaries;

d) The General Meeting of Shareholders elects one or more people to the vote counting committee at the request of the meeting chairman.

3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically specify the time for each issue in the meeting agenda.

4. The chairman of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees.

- a) Seating arrangement at the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- b) Ensure safety for everyone present at meeting venues;
- c) Create conditions for shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the full right to change the above measures and apply all necessary measures. The measures applied may be to issue admission tickets or use other forms of selection.

5. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each issue in the agenda. Voting is conducted by approval vote, disapproval vote and abstention. The vote counting results are announced by the chairman immediately before the meeting closes.

6. Shareholders or authorized persons who arrive after the meeting has opened may still register and have the right to vote immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of the previously voted contents shall not change.

7. The person convening or chairing the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

- a) Require all meeting attendees to submit to inspection or other lawful, reasonable security measures;
- b) Request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; expel those who do not comply with the chairman's authority, intentionally disrupt order, prevent the normal progress of the meeting or do not comply with security check requirements from the General Meeting of Shareholders.

8. The Chairman has the right to postpone a General Meeting of Shareholders with a sufficient number of registered attendees for no more than 03 working days from the date of the scheduled opening of the meeting and may only postpone the meeting or change the meeting location in the following cases:

- a) The meeting venue does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;
- b) The information technology at the meeting location does not ensure that shareholders attending the meeting can participate, discuss and vote;
- c) There are attendees who obstruct or disrupt the meeting, creating a risk of preventing the meeting from being conducted fairly and legally.

9. In case the chairman postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairman in conducting the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be effective.

10. In case the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders attend and vote by electronic voting or other electronic forms as prescribed in Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 21. Conditions for the Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders to be passed

1. The resolution on the following content shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total number of votes of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, or 65% or more of the total number of votes of all shareholders with voting rights in case of obtaining shareholders' opinions in writing, except for the cases specified in Clauses 3 and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.

- a) Type of shares and total number of shares of each type;
- b) Change of industry, profession and business field;
- c) Changes in the Company's management structure;
- d) Investment projects or sale of assets with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statement;
- e) Reorganize and dissolve the Company;

2. Resolutions are passed when approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total number of votes of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except for the cases specified in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4 and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.

3. Voting to elect members of the Board of Directors may be carried out by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of elected members of the Board of Directors and shareholders have the right to accumulate all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. The elected members of the Board of Directors are determined by the number of votes from high to low, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company's Charter is sufficient. In case there are two (02) or more candidates with the same number of votes for the final member of the Board of Directors, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes or selection will be made according to the criteria specified in the election regulations. In addition, voting to elect members of the Board of Directors may be carried out by other methods specified in the election regulations of each member election period.

4. In case of passing a resolution in the form of collecting writing opinions, the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be passed if it is approved by the number of shareholders owning more than fifty percent (50%) of the total number of votes of all shareholders with voting rights, except for the cases specified in Clause 1 of this Article.

5. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders passed by 100% of the total number of voting shares are legal and effective even if the order and procedures for convening the meeting and passing the resolution violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 22. Authority and procedures for obtaining shareholders' writing opinions to pass Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for obtaining writing opinions of shareholders to pass the Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be implemented according to the following provisions:

1. When deemed necessary for the benefit of the Company, the Board of Directors has the right to obtain writing opinions from shareholders to pass resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on all matters within its authority, including but not limited to the cases specified in Clause 2, Article 147 of the Law on Enterprises.

2. The Board of Directors must prepare the voting ballot, draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, documents explaining the draft resolution and send them to all shareholders with voting rights at least 10 days before the deadline for returning the voting ballot. The preparation of the list of shareholders to send the voting ballot shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions in Clauses 1 and 2, Article 141 of the Law on Enterprises. The requirements and method of sending the voting ballot and accompanying documents shall be implemented similarly to the provisions on the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders stipulated in Clause 3, Article 18 of this Charter.

3. The consent ballot must have the following main contents:

a) Name, head office address, business registration number;

b) Purpose of collecting opinions;

c) Full name, contact address, nationality, legal document number of the individual for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or legal document number of the organization, head office address for organizational shareholders or full name, contact address, nationality, legal document number of the individual for the representative of the organizational shareholder; number of shares of each type and number of votes of the shareholder;

d) Issues requiring consultation to pass decisions;

e) Voting options include approval, disapproval and abstention for each issue requiring consent;

f) Deadline for returning completed opinion forms to the Company;

g) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4. Shareholders may send completed ballots to the Company by mail or email according to the following regulations:

- a) In case of sending a letter, the answered opinion form must be signed by the individual shareholder, the authorized representative or the legal representative of the shareholder being an organization. The opinion form sent to the Company must be contained in a sealed envelope and no one is allowed to open it before the vote counting;
- b) In case of sending by email, the opinion form sent to the Company must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;
- c) Voting forms sent to the Company after the deadline specified in the voting form or opened in the case of mailing and disclosed in the case of emailing are invalid. Voting forms that are not returned are considered as non-voting forms.

5. The Board of Directors shall count the votes and prepare a vote counting record under the witness of the Company's Person in Charge of Corporate Governance or a shareholder who does not hold a management position in the Company. The vote counting record must contain the following main contents:

- a) Name, registered office address, business registration number;
- b) Purpose and issues requiring consent to pass resolutions;
- c) Number of shareholders with total voting shares participating in the vote, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes, and the method of voting, accompanied by an appendix listing the shareholders participating in the vote;
- d) Total votes approval, disapproval, and abstaining for each issue;
- e) Issues that have been passed and corresponding voting percentages;
- f) Full name, signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counter, and the vote supervisor.

Members of the Board of Directors, the vote counter, and the vote supervisor shall be jointly liable for the honesty and accuracy of the vote counting report; jointly responsible for any damages arising from decisions passed due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The minutes of vote counting and resolutions must be sent to shareholders within 15 days from the date of completion of vote counting. The sending of the minutes of vote counting and resolutions can be replaced by posting them on the Company's website within 24 hours from the date of completion of vote counting.

7. The returned ballots, vote counting minutes, passed resolutions and related documents attached to the ballots must all be kept at the Company's head office.

8. A resolution shall be passed by way of obtaining written opinions of shareholders if approved by shareholders owning more than 50% of the total number of votes of all shareholders with voting rights and shall have the same value as a resolution passed at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders, except for the cases specified in Clause 1, Article 21 of this Charter.

Article 23. Resolutions and Minutes of Shareholders' Meeting

1. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. Minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese, can be prepared in a foreign language, and have the following main contents:

- a) Name, head office address, business registration number;
- b) Time and venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c) Meeting agenda and content;
- d) Full name of the chairman and secretary;
- e) Summarize the meeting proceedings and opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders on each issue in the meeting agenda;
- f) Number of shareholders and total number of votes of shareholders attending the meeting, appendix of list of registered shareholders, shareholder representatives attending the meeting with corresponding number of shares and votes;
- g) Total number of votes for each voting issue, clearly stating the voting method, total number of valid, invalid, approving, disapproving and abstaining votes; corresponding percentage to the total number of votes of shareholders attending the meeting;
- h) Issues passed and corresponding percentage of votes passed;
- i) Full name and signature of the chairperson and secretary. In case the chairman or secretary refuses to sign the meeting minutes, the minutes shall be valid if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting and contain all the contents as prescribed in this clause. The meeting minutes shall clearly state the refusal of the chairman or secretary to sign the meeting minutes.

2. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the end of the meeting. The chairman and secretary of the meeting or other persons signing the minutes of the meeting must be responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the contents of the minutes.

3. Minutes made in Vietnamese and foreign languages have the same legal effect. In case of any difference in content between the minutes in Vietnamese and in foreign languages, the content in the minutes in Vietnamese shall apply.

4. Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be fully published on the Company's website, the electronic portal of the State Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange within twenty-four (24) hours from the date of approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Enterprises.

5. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, appendix of list of shareholders registered to attend the meeting, resolutions passed and related documents sent with the meeting invitation must be kept at the company's head office.

Article 24. Request to cancel Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Within 90 days from the date of receipt of the resolution or minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the minutes of the results of the vote counting to obtain opinions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises has the right to request the Court or Arbitration to review and cancel the resolution or part of the content of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The order and procedures for convening meetings and making decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and this Charter, except for the case specified in Clause 5, Article 21 of this Charter.
2. The content of the resolution violates the law or this Charter.

CHAPTER VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 25. Candidacy and nomination of members of the Board of Directors

1. In case the Board of Directors candidates have been identified, the Company must disclose information related to the candidates at least 10 days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting. The Board of Directors candidates must have a written commitment to the honesty and accuracy of the disclosed personal information and must commit to performing their duties honestly, carefully and in the best interests of the Company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information related to the Board of Directors candidates to be disclosed includes:

- e) Benefits related to the Company and its related parties;
- f) Other information (if any) as prescribed in the Company's Charter;
- g) The company must be responsible for disclosing information about the companies in which the candidate is holding the position of member of the Board of Directors, other management positions and the interests related to the company of the candidate for the Board of Directors (if any).

2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding from 10% to less than 20% of the total number of voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 20% to less than 30% may nominate up to two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% may nominate up to three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% may nominate up to four (04) candidates; from 50% or more may nominate up to five (05) candidates.

3. In case the number of candidates for the Board of Directors through nomination and candidacy is still not enough as required in Clause 5, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises, the incumbent Board of Directors shall introduce candidates in parallel with organizing the nomination of additional candidates as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the Charter, Internal Regulations on corporate governance and the Regulations on the operation of the Board of Directors. The nomination of additional candidates for the Board of Directors by the incumbent Board of Directors must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of law.

4. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the standards and conditions prescribed in Clause 1 and Clause 2, Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 26. Composition and term of office of members of the Board of Directors

1. The number of members of the Board of Directors is 7 people.

2. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed 05 years and can be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual can only be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of the company for no more than 02 consecutive terms. In case all members of the Board of Directors end their terms at the same time, those members will continue to be members of the Board of Directors until a new member is elected to replace and take over the work.

3. The composition of the Board of Directors is as follows:

The structure of the Board of Directors of the company must ensure that there are at least 3 members of the Board of Directors who are non-executive members. The company limits the number of Board of Directors members who concurrently hold executive positions of the Company to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.

The company must also ensure that at least 02 members of the Board of Directors are independent members.

4. A member of the Board of Directors shall no longer be eligible to be a member of the Board of Directors in the event that he/she is dismissed, removed or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of Article 160 of the Law on Enterprises.

5. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be announced in accordance with the law on information disclosure on the stock market.

6. Members of the Board of Directors do not necessarily have to be shareholders of the Company.

Article 27. Powers and obligations of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the Company's management body, with full authority to decide and exercise the Company's rights and obligations on behalf of the Company, except for the rights and obligations under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are stipulated by law, the Company's Charter and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

- a) Decide on the Company's strategy, medium-term development plan and annual business plan;
- b) Propose the type of shares and the total number of shares of each type that can be offered for sale;

- g) Decide on solutions for market development, marketing and technology;
- h) Approve purchase, sale, loan, lending contracts and other contracts and transactions with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent audited financial statements, except for contracts and transactions under the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Point d, Clause 2, Article 138, Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises;
- i) Elect, dismiss, remove the Chairman of the Board of Directors; appoint, dismiss, sign contracts, terminate contracts with the CEO and other important managers as prescribed in the Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance; decide on salaries, remuneration, bonuses and other benefits of such managers; appoint authorized representatives to participate in the Board of Members or General Meeting of Shareholders at other companies, decide on remuneration and other benefits of such persons;
- k) Supervise and direct the CEO and other managers in the daily business operations of the Company;
- l) Decide on the organizational structure and internal management regulations of the Company, decide on the establishment of subsidiaries, branches, representative offices and capital contribution and purchase of shares of other enterprises;
- m) Approve the agenda and content of documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders, convene the General Meeting of Shareholders or collect opinions for the General Meeting of Shareholders to pass resolutions;
- n) Submit audited annual financial statements to the General Meeting of Shareholders;

- o) Propose the level of dividends to be paid; decide on the time limit and procedures for paying dividends or handling losses arising during the business process;
 - p) Propose the reorganization and dissolution of the Company; request the bankruptcy of the Company;
 - q) Decide on the private offering of bonds, including the type of bond, total value of bonds and time of offering, except for the case specified in Point a, Clause 1, Article 130 of the Law on Enterprises, but must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the latest meeting.
 - r) Decision to promulgate the Board of Directors' Operating Regulations and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance after being approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders; decision to promulgate the Company's Information Disclosure Regulations;
 - s) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, relevant laws, this Charter and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.
3. The Board of Directors must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on the results of the Board of Directors' activities in accordance with Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 28. Remuneration, salary and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and efficiency.
2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to remuneration and bonuses. The remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the duties of the Board of Directors member and the daily remuneration. The Board of Directors estimates the remuneration for each member based on the principle of consensus. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors are decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
